Mission Statement

The mission of the Arkansas Department of Correction is to provide public safety by carrying out the mandates of the courts; provide a safe, humane environment for staff and inmates; provide programs to strengthen the work ethic; and provide opportunities for spiritual, mental and physical growth.

Vision Statement

The Vision of the Arkansas Department of Correction is to be an honorable and professional organization through ethical and innovative leadership at all levels, providing cost efficient, superior correctional services that return productive people to the community.

Introduction

The inmate handbook provides you with basic information about the department's policies and procedures. *The information in it does not cover every possible situation, and it may not reflect recent changes in policy or procedure. You are expected to follow all department policies and rules.

Department policies are available to you in your unit's law library. You should always refer to the most recent policy as policies are reviewed annually for potential updates. You should focus on re-entry from the day you arrive, as your actions today will impact how you serve your time in the department and whether you are better prepared upon your release.

Intake

New inmates go through a diagnostic process called intake. During intake, inmates are given medical, mental health and academic examinations, court papers are reviewed, counselors gather information through interviews, program recommendations are made and a general orientation takes place. When possible, programming will begin during the intake period.

Intake generally takes about 3 to 5 days, but can last longer. It is during intake that inmates can set up an account to purchase items

Supermax

All inmates transferred to the Varner Supermax Program will have a due process hearing. This hearing requires a 24-hour advance notice to the inmate. The sending unit may recommend that an inmate be transferred to the Supermax for any of the following:

1. Escape from inside a secure facility.
2. Assault on staff resulting in injury.
3. Assault on another inmate with a weapon.
4. Disciplinary conviction for a violent felony.
5. Other reasons, which the Warden believes may constitute a serious threat to the security and good order of the institution.

Transfer Appeals

The committee's decision to transfer an inmate to the Supermax Program may be appealed to the Chief Deputy Director within 15 days after the inmate receives a copy of the decision.

Varner Supermax Program Rules

The Varner Supermax has a separate handbook that is issued to inmates who are assigned to that program.

Supervision of parolees is provided by the Arkansas Community Correction Department.

Pardons

Pardons are granted by the Governor and are used to restore rights that may have been lost because of a criminal conviction. An application for pardon can be obtained from an Institutional Parole Officer.

Executive Clemency

You may apply to the Governor for executive clemency which can reduce the length of your sentence. If you are convicted of a Class A or Class Y felony or Capital Murder and your executive clemency is denied by the Governor, you must wait four years from that date to reapply. The exception is Class Y drug crimes, which allow reapplication after only one year.

Emergency Powers Act (EPA)

The Emergency Powers Act gives the Board of Corrections the authority to declare a prison-overcrowding emergency and to move parole/transfer eligibility dates forward by up to 90 days for eligible inmates. Even if the EPA is in effect, the Parole Board must still approve inmates for parole and an approved parole plan must exist prior to release.

Under an expanded version of the EPA, inmates who were convicted on a nonviolent offense (except for those sentencing under Act 1326), are Class I or Class II, and have been in the ADC system for at least six months and do not have violent disciplinary histories may be eligible for release up to one year early.

Legal Assistance

There are two licensed Arkansas attorneys to assist with legal advice and explanations of court documents. The attorneys cannot represent inmates in lawsuits against the Department of Correction or its employees or on matters concerning criminal convictions. However, they can represent inmates in certain divorce and Department of Human Services matters.

from the unit commissary. Inmates cannot have visitors during intake; you will have access to a portable phone for PREA hotline and legal calls if needed, otherwise, no telephone use while in the lockdown area of intake. Once you move into the intake step-down barracks, telephone use is allowed.

You will be photographed during intake. If your appearance changes at any time during your incarceration, a new photograph will be taken.

Inmate Statutory Responsibilities

While in the custody of the Arkansas Department of Correction, you must follow department policies and all state and federal laws, including the requirement to file income tax returns if you had taxable income during the tax year. If you are unable to file income tax returns, it is your responsibility to ask for assistance. If you receive an income tax refund check, the appropriate tax agency will be contacted for approval before the check is deposited into your account. Other legal obligations, such as child support, do not terminate due to incarceration either. If you have an obligation to pay child support, you should petition the court that entered the order and request a modification of the obligation.

Veterans Benefits/Social Security Income and Tax Refunds

If you are receiving Veterans benefits or Social Security Income, the department will notify the agency providing the benefits that you are now incarcerated. That agency determines whether to continue sending the benefits to you.

Initial Assignment

After intake, inmates are transferred to a parent unit for their initial assignment. Exceptions for initial assignments may be made for boot camp, health reasons, security concerns or program assignments. The initial assignment lasts a minimum of 60 days. Behavior, bed space, job availability and institutional needs dictate future assignments.

Transfers

Any inmate may request a transfer to another ADC unit. The request must be in writing to your unit warden and/or classification officer and should be placed in the unit mail. The decision to transfer an inmate is based upon availability of bed space, institutional needs, security level and other factors.

Classification

Inmate are classified in three ways: custody classification, good-time earning classification and medical classification. Custody classification is the result of scoring established criteria including crime, length of sentence, disciplinary record, prior violence, escape history and various other factors that determine risk to the public and risk within the institution. Custody classification is used to determine which facilities an inmate can be assigned.

Good-time classification places inmates in Class I, II, III or IV status. If eligible, Class I earns 30 days additional good time credit per month (For example, after 30 days in Class I status, the inmate has 60 days credit); Class II earns 20 days additional credit per month; Class III earns 10 days additional credit per month; and Class IV does not earn any good time. An inmate being held in a city or county jail awaiting transfer to the Department of Correction may be awarded good time at a Class II level for time served after conviction with good behavior. If awarded good time, it will be reflected on the inmate's time card.

Class promotion is not automatic. All inmates are placed in Class II status when they arrive at the ADC. It is up to you to earn Class I status, and your class can be reduced because of disciplinary problems. Promotions in class status are decided by the Unit Classification Committee, which makes the decisions based on your past and current behavior and on recommendations from your work supervisor and/or other staff. The classification committee also makes transfer decisions, housing and work assignments.

Health care professionals determine medical classifications and restrictions which are considered in making work assignments.

Work Assignments

The Unit Classification Committee or Officer will make all work assignments. Programming assignments are considered work assignments. All inmates who are medically able are expected to work and disciplinaries will be written if an inmate refuses a work assignment. ADC does not pay wages to inmates.

Unit Reassignments

Any inmate may be assigned or reassigned to an appropriate unit because of poor institutional adjustment, disciplinary record, security concerns or institutional needs.

Inmate Groups

Jaycees

Some ADC units have a Jaycees chapter for inmates. If you are interested, information is available at your unit.

Inmate Panels

An inmate panel is a select group of inmates who appear before school groups, civic clubs and other organizations to discuss problems of crime and delinquency. Only inmates with outstanding institutional records will be considered for participation.

Alcoholics Anonymous/Narcotics Anonymous

At many units, community volunteers hold weekly meetings with inmates who indicate they have alcohol or drug problems.

Parole/Transfer and Pardons

Parole/Transfer

Parole or transfer is early release from incarceration, and it is supervised and conditional. Since parole is a privilege and not a right, it may carry several conditions. An inmate can be required by the Parole Board to complete certain ADC programming such as substance abuse treatment, academic education, vocational education, the Reduction of Sexual Victimization Program or the Sex Offender Treatment Program for females before being released on parole.

If the conditions of release are not met, or if the inmate fails to follow the reporting schedule, parole can be revoked and the inmate can be sent back to prison.

Parole Eligibility/Transfer Eligibility Dates

The records offices of the various units compute parole eligibility or transfer eligibility dates. All inmates, except those sentenced to life, life without parole, death or certain repeat offenders, can be eligible for parole/transfer at some point. Eligibility dates will depend on state laws concerning the crime, the sentence and good time. The eligibility date can change because of disciplinary action or additional convictions.

Supervision of Parolees

The Arkansas Department of Correction does not supervise parolees.

with each money order. Deposit slips are available online at the ADC Web site: www.arkansas.gov/doc.

Inmates also have access to the deposit slips at each unit and can forward them to family members.

Family and friends can also send money through the ADC Website or by phone at 1-866-250-7697. These methods require a credit card and involve a small processing fee.

Disbursements

Instructions on how to make disbursements from your inmate account are available from your unit's commissary manager or bookkeeper.

Gate Money

The department provides most inmates with money (debit cards) when they are released from ADC custody. The money is not provided to inmates being released to a detainer or to work-release inmates unless the Director makes an exception.

Marriage

Inmate marriage requests are submitted to the unit Chaplain, who will schedule an interview so the necessary paperwork can begin. There is a 90-day waiting period that starts on the day of the inmate's interview with the Chaplain. The request is sent from the Chaplain to the Warden for approval. If the Warden approves the marriage request, a date is set for the ceremony. You must be Class I to submit a marriage request.

You, your family and friends or another private source must pay all costs of the wedding, including transportation costs. Up to six guests may attend the ceremony. Their names must be provided in advance to the Warden, and all guests must be on your approved visitation list. The wedding couple will not be allowed to spend time together after the ceremony.

Law Library

All units, except work-release centers, have a law library that is open during set hours. The Compliance Office makes sure information available at unit law libraries is kept up to date.

Promotion and Reclassification

After completing your initial 60 days in the department, you may apply to your immediate supervisor for promotion or reclassification. Reclassification is not automatic; you must apply for consideration.

Your immediate supervisor must recommend a promotion or reclassification. To be eligible for consideration, you must not be found guilty of a major rule violation for at least 60 days. If you receive a minor disciplinary, warning, reprimand or suspended sentence, you are not eligible for consideration for 30 days. If you are found guilty of a rule violation, you will not be eligible for consideration until the designated period has expired unless specifically approved by the Warden. This period does not include time you spent in punitive. Examples below include:

Infraction	Time
• Escape or attempted escape	1 year
• Felonious battery	1 year
• Assault/battery of an employee or throwing any substance	1 year
• Homicide or attempted homicide	1 year
• Sexual activity	3 months
• Drugs and alcohol	3 months

After receiving reclassification, you must not receive a disciplinary for at least 30 days before appearing before the Unit Classification Committee to ask for another reclassification.

Following Orders

You must follow lawful orders. If you violate the rules either by failing to act (such as reporting for work on time) or by acting in ways that are contrary to the rules, you will be disciplined. Always follow the last instructions given by staff.

Living in a Prison Setting

Your cooperation and attitude toward yourself, staff and other inmates, plays an important role in how you will get along. The staff is here to help while making sure that order and safety are maintained in the institution. When talking to staff and other inmates, you are expected to use a respectful tone and words.

Rehabilitation is a word that you will hear a lot. It means a rebuilding of attitudes, values, work skills and education. The ADC provides several programs that can help you with the rebuilding process, and you are encouraged to take advantage of the services offered, including substance abuse treatment, classes to assist with Anger Management, Thinking Errors, etc., religious programs, vocational and academic education and work programs. Seek out opportunities to improve your skills to be successful in the future.

Lights Out

Normally, bedtime/lights out will be at 10:30 p.m. nightly. At that time, all televisions will be turned off. The Warden/Center Supervisor may, at his/her discretion, occasionally authorize special events beyond this time. At the discretion of the Warden/Center Supervisor, if you have an approved radio or MP4 Player with headphones, you may continue to listen after lights out. Radios and MP4 Players can be purchased through the commissary.

Cleanliness

You are expected to be neat and clean, and the ADC provides the basic items necessary for good grooming. During intake, you are issued personal hygiene items and clothing, which will be laundered regularly and kept in good condition. You may buy additional grooming items from the commissary. You are encouraged to shower regularly. Barber or beautician services are available to comply with the Department's grooming policy.

Any time you leave your living area, you should be dressed properly. This means shoes, socks, pants, shirts and other apparel.

It is your responsibility to keep your living area clean and in order. You will not attach anything to any walls, windows, ceiling or floor of the institution, whether you live in a barracks, cell or room. Your bed should be made neatly before leaving your living area.

Grooming Policy

Your hair must be worn loose, clean and neatly combed. You cannot wear wigs or hairpieces. No styles are permitted that make it difficult to search the hair, including cornrows, braids or dread locks. The hair of male inmates must be cut above the ears and above the middle of the nape of the neck. Female inmates may wear their hair no longer than shoulder length.

Indigent Program

Criteria is as follows:

1. Be at the unit for 30 days.
2. Have less than $10 on your account and have received less than $10 on your account in the immediate preceding 30 days.

Indigent items are provided every 30 days. Requests will be filled on the last day of the month. If the inmate is eligible and has funds on account, entitlement will be reduced by the amount of funds.

The system will not let you have an item before the allotted time frame, not even one day early. Nor can the system be backdated for unavailable items. Items will be issued to eligible inmates in the same manner as unit's procedures for commissary. Eligible indigent inmates will shop on routine schedules with non-indigent inmates.

Indigent commissary lists will be filled according to availability and in the order they are received.

Any outside money that the inmate receives while in the indigent program can go to pay for filing fees, legal postage or any other outstanding costs.

Money

Inmate Accounts

Upon entering the department, an account will be set up for you to allow deposits of money while you are incarcerated. Your account will be charged for all purchases made through the commissary.

You cannot receive cash. Only money orders and government checks will be posted to your account. All money must be sent directly to Inmate Banking:

Arkansas Department of Correction:
Trust Fund Centralized Banking
P.O. Box 8908
Pine Bluff, AR 71611

Money orders should be made payable to the inmate's name and ADC number. A "Money Order Deposit Slip" must be completed and sent least 24 hours in advance. The Warden or designee must approve all such visits and will consider, among other factors, the following:

- a. Nature of rule violation.
- b. Further rule violations while housed on punitive status.
- c. Satisfactory cell inspection reports.

Special Status/Assignment

Inmates on special status/assignment (such as Restrictive Housing, Investigative Status and Mental Health) may be allowed to receive a visit, consistent with good security, as designated by the Warden/Center Supervisor or Assistant Warden. Death Row visits are held in accordance with the appropriate administrative directive.

Furloughs

Emergency Furloughs

Emergency furloughs may be granted when there is a critical illness or death in immediate family on the inmate's approved visitation list.

Meritorious Furloughs

A meritorious furlough may be granted if you have maintained Class I-A or I-B status for one year. The Unit Classification Committee must approve all meritorious furloughs.

Under state law, meritorious furloughs cannot be granted to inmates sentenced for capital murder, murder in the first degree, kidnapping, stalking, rape, any other sexual offense or any offense concerning exploitation of children or the use of children in sexual performances. The sheriff of the county where an inmate will be staying during the furlough must be notified.

Work-Release Furloughs

Work-release furloughs may be granted for one weekend a month to inmates participating in a work release program.

Commissary

Each unit has a commissary or some way to purchase items that are not normally provided by the ADC. The Board of Corrections sets the weekly limit of money allowed to be spent. A list of available items and purchase prices is provided at each commissary. Prices are subject to change.

The only facial hair allowed is a neatly trimmed moustache that does not extend beyond the corners of the mouth or over the lip. Sideburns cannot be lower than the middle of the earlobe.

Fingernails and toenails must be clipped so they do not extend beyond the tip of your fingers or toes.

You must maintain standards of hygiene that do not create a health hazard, security issues or public nuisance. If your personal hygiene falls below these standards, the Chief of Security may order steps to gain your compliance

Fire/Safety Evacuation

Each living area is equipped with an evacuation plan. It is your duty to become familiar with evacuation plans.

Security Issues

Count

During count time, no movement is allowed. Whenever count time is called, an officer will explain what to do. If you are in your living quarters or work area, remain there unless directed otherwise by staff.

For count to go as quickly as possible, you are expected to cooperate. Failure to cooperate will result in disciplinary action.

Searches/Shake Downs

For everyone's protection, you, your personal property and your living quarters can be searched at any time. You do not have to be present during property or living quarter searches. You are responsible for any item(s) found on you or in your area.

Property

Property is defined as:

1. Personal Property - items which are owned by you which are authorized to be retained on your person or in your living or storage area.
2. State Issue Property - items which are issued to you by the institution and which may be retained within a reasonable amount.

Contraband

Any article not authorized nor issued to you as personal property or state property, nor purchased by you from the commissary, is considered contraband. Articles in excess of established limits, articles used for unauthorized purposes and/or articles in your possession in an unauthorized area are considered contraband. Any item altered from its original state is also considered contraband. Possessing contraband is a rule violation and will result in disciplinary action.

Enemy Alert Lists

If you request that another inmate be placed on your enemy alert list, the Chief of Security and the Warden will determine whether the alert is warranted. Staff cannot be placed on an inmate's enemy alert list, but a staff separation can be entered if determined necessary by the Department.

Inmate Lockers/Locks

When lockers are necessary, the ADC may provide them to you, however, at some facilities we may not. As such, locks are available in the commissary and the combination must be provided to the security office. The administration reserves the right to maintain access to all lockers. If combination is not made available to the administration, entry will be made at your expense.

Prison Rape Elimination Act

On Sept. 4 2003, the federal Prison Rape Elimination Act (PREA) was signed into law. It applies to all confinement institutions housing adult and juvenile offenders. The Arkansas Department of Correction has a "zero-tolerance" policy regarding the sexual abuse of inmates, by staff or other inmates. Speak up. Do not be a silent victim of sexual assault or rape. Sexual assault is not part of your sentence! If you have been sexually assaulted or feel you are being pressured into a sexual relationship, you can tell any staff, write a letter, file a grievance and/or call the free hotline on the Inmate Phone System, 0-870-267-6533 and report this immediately. All calls will be reviewed.

Reporting allegation of sexual abuse

Report the incident to staff immediately or call the free hotline, 0-870-267-6533. An immediate referral will be made to Health Services for a physical examination and completion of rape kit test. (Do not shower or clean yourself after the incident because it will interfere with the rape test results.) A swift and thorough investigation will be conducted.

visitation list.

Children 12 years of age or younger may be allowed to visit only when accompanied by an adult.

Current ADC employees and contract employees (working in an ADC facility), shall not be approved for visitation unless, prior to their employment, they were immediate family members of the inmate. Former ADC employees and former contract employees shall not be approved for visitation for a period of three (3) years from their last date of employment unless, prior to their employment, they were immediate family members of the inmate.

Visitation Schedule

At most units, visitation is either on Saturday or Sunday. Your custody classification can determine if and when visitation is allowed. Each unit will have a schedule for visitation and you must notify your visitor (s).

Special Visits/Visits Other Than on Regular Visitation Day

If the Warden approves, visits may be allowed during the week or during weekend visitation for approved visitors who live more than 300 miles from your unit. Special visits, permitted during regular business hours, may be arranged with the Warden/Center Supervisor/designee for attorneys of record and clergy. Special visits have to be arranged in advance, preferably 24 hours prior to the visit.

Visitation Rules

Four visitors are allowed during any one visit, including children. However, a spouse and all children, regardless of the number, may visit at the same time.

Non-Contact Visitation

Non-contact visitation, where a glass divider separates the inmate and visitor, is used at the discretion of the Warden for inmates in restrictive housing. Non-contact is the only form of visitation allowed for inmates assigned to the Varner Supermax Program.

Visitation on Punitive Status

Inmates on punitive status may be allowed visitation privileges unless there are substantial reasons for withholding such privileges. Visits will be conducted for two hours, once a month and scheduled as

Letters must be written in the English language unless there is approval from the Warden/Center Supervisor to communicate with family in another language.

The Department of Correction does not accept postage due mail or packages. Postage payment must be made in advance.

Types of Mail Allowed

Your family, friends, officials and other significant community contacts can mail letters to you or send letters electronically. Incoming mail received containing contraband is returned to the sender in its entirety.

Any books, magazines, newspapers or catalogs that you receive from the publisher, bookstore, educational institution or recognized commercial or charitable outlet will be rejected if it violates the publication policy. Payment must be made in advance. Publications are subject to review and may be refused/denied due to content. You will be advised of the reason if a publication is rejected.

If you have an authorized hobby craft card, you may order and receive items approved by the Warden or a designee. No other packages are allowed except with the approval of the Warden and the appropriate Assistant or Deputy Director. Packages which do not have prior approval will be returned to the sender. Packages are subject to search.

Inter-Unit Correspondence

All inter-unit mail must have the approval of both the sending and receiving units. Mail between inmates of the ADC is restricted to members of the inmate's immediate family and is subject to the same rules as general correspondence.

Visitation

Approval of Visitors

Everyone who plans to visit must fill out a Visitation Questionnaire. A criminal history check is done on all prospective visitors. It is the inmate's responsibility to advise visitors of their approval and visitation days and times. It is the inmate's responsibility to notify the Warden/Center Supervisor/designee of any requested changes on the approved

Evidence will be collected and stored. Rape complaints will be restricted to those individuals who investigate, provide assistance or prosecute to protect the victim. The victim will be placed in a safe place where he/she is not subject to retaliation. The unit's PREA Response Team will be notified and will assist the inmate. Statements will be taken from witnesses and findings will be documented. The case may result in discipline and/or be referred for criminal prosecution.

Tobacco Regulations

You are not allowed to have any kind of tobacco products. If you are caught with tobacco, the appropriate disciplinary action will be taken against you for possessing contraband.

Inmate Grievance Procedure

Step One: Informal Resolution Form

The Unit Level Grievance Form (Attachment I) must be completed by the inmate within 15 days from the date of the incident with the date beside "Step One: Informal Resolution" filled in. If the Inmate is alleging sexual assault, sexual misconduct/harassment by staff or physical abuse then the inmate is not required to complete step one, but should complete a Unit Level Grievance Form (Attachment I) with a date beside "Emergency Grievance" and present it to any staff, but preferably the designated Problem Solving Staff. Please also know that an inmate cannot grieve on behalf of another inmate.

An inmate presents the Unit Level Grievance Form (Attachment I) directly to a designated problem-solving staff. Only in the space provided, the inmate should write a brief statement that is specific to the complaint. Include the date, place, personnel involved and/or witnesses and how the policy or incident affected you. Additional sheets cannot be attached at any level of the process.

The Problem Solver has 3 working days to resolve the issue at Step One, informal level. If the problem cannot be resolved at the informal level or if the Problem Solver does not respond within the allotted time, the inmate may proceed to Step Two, the formal grievance level.

Step Two: Formal Grievance Procedure

After attempting to resolve an issue through Step One, informal resolution, an inmate can proceed to Step Two, formal grievance, on the same Unit Level Grievance Form (Attachment I) that was used for Step One.

The inmate should complete the date beside “Step Two: Formal Grievance” and the section regarding resubmission (of this form) as to why the inmate considers the informal resolution unsuccessful, and deposit it into the designated grievance box; or submit it to a staff member if the inmate’s assignment prevents access to the grievance box. If an inmate is unable to read or write, an officer, other staff or an inmate can help fill out the forms. Inmates are only allowed to submit three Step Two, formal grievances, each seven-day period which begins each Saturday and ends on Friday; unless an emergency exists. Once the grievance has been answered at the unit level, if the Inmate is not satisfied with the response given, the grievance can be appealed within five working days to the appropriate Chief Deputy/Deputy/Assistant Director. At that point, the inmate has exhausted his/her administrative remedies.

Emergency Grievances

Emergency grievances should not be declared for ordinary problems that are not of a serious nature. If the inmate believes the matter to be an emergency, he/she will fill in on the date beside “Emergency Grievance” on the Unit Level Grievance Form, (Attachment I) to designate an emergency. Staff will determine if an emergency does exist.

Food Service

Every effort is made to provide, prepare and serve a variety of nutritious foods. Do not waste food. Three meals a day are served unless an inmate with a recognized medical condition is required to be served more often. On holidays, you might be served two meals; a late breakfast or brunch and a large holiday meal. If your religious practices prevent you from eating certain meats, nutritional substitutes are offered. A small sign indicating “Pork Free” is placed on the steam table indicating each food item that does not contain pork. A quiet, orderly and timely demeanor will be maintained. After you are finished, you will immediately leave the kitchen area.

Alternative Meal Service

Any inmate may be placed on an alternative meal service if observed misusing food, serving trays, utensils or any items used to prepare, serve or package meals.

An alternative meal is a loaf-style form of nourishment designed to be eaten without the need for utensils. Water is the only beverage available ing, Computer Application Technology, Cosmetology, Finish Carpentry & Cabinetry, Culinary Arts/Food Services, HVAC-R, Horticulture, Landscape Design & Construction, Office Technology, Plumbing, Residential Carpentry, Residential Electricity, Small Engine Repair, Graphic Arts, Furniture, Upholstery, Welding & Fabrication and Workforce Logistics.

Prison Industry Enhancement Certification Program

A PIECP worker is an inmate who provides labor for a BJA Prison Industries Enhancement Certification Program (PIECP). He or she benefits from PIECP by receiving an opportunity for training and work experience. The inmate worker must voluntarily agree to participate in PIECP and meet eligibility requirements. ADC retains an amount of the inmate’s earnings for operational fees. Earnings must also go into a savings account, to the Arkansas Crime Victims Reparation Fund, to the inmate’s dependents and court-ordered child support, where applicable.

Religious Services

Religious Activities

Chaplains and volunteers provide religious services, pastoral counseling, study groups, revivals and other special events.

Religious medals

One religious medal or emblem may be worn on an ID chain. A separate chain is not allowed. The religious medal or emblem cannot be larger than one and a half inches in length or width and no thicker than 1/8 of an inch. The medal/emblem must be received and approved through the chaplain’s office.

Mail Policy/Packages

All of your incoming and outgoing mail may be read, except for privileged correspondence, which will be opened in your presence and inspected for contraband. This correspondence includes letters from attorneys; federal, state, and local court officials; any administrator of the Department of Correction, Parole Board and the Board of Corrections; and the media. If properly marked as privileged correspondence, it will be opened in front of you and inspected for contraband.

Outgoing mail must have your full name, return address, including your ADC number. Incoming mail and packages should have your full name and ADC number.

any parole board stipulations, the status of your medical coverage (Medicare, Medicaid, Insurance), housing and employment plans, and whether you have a valid driver's license or state identification card. You will be provided with a copy of your reentry plan, as well as copies of any program completions and certificates. You also will receive information regarding the reinstatement of your voting rights. If you are required to register as a sex offender, notification of your pending release will be sent to the Prosecuting Attorney pursuant to Act 973 of 2015.

Work Release

In the Work Release Program, inmates are housed in correctional facilities and hold paid jobs in the community after working on Regional Maintenance. From the wages they earn, the inmates partially reimburse the state for their care and custody. Inmates who have dependents must remit one-third of their net income or the amount that may be required by court order. The inmate will normally be allowed to spend up to an amount equal to the approved weekly commissary draw. The remaining balance will be deposited to the inmate's ADC account. Any disbursements out of this account must be approved by the Warden/Center Supervisor. The inmate may access the account upon his or her release from custody. Work Release inmates must be Class I-A eligible and no more than 42 months from their release or parole/transfer eligibility date. Some inmates are ineligible for the program due to their criminal or disciplinary history.

Education

15 business days of the hearing.

2. The Warden/Center Supervisor has 30 business days from receipt of your appeal to respond. If you are serving punitive time as a result of the disciplinary and marked the box in the upper right corner of the form with an "X", then the Warden/Center Supervisor should respond in 10 business days, if possible.
3. If you are not satisfied with the Warden's/Center Supervisor's response, you have 15 business days to appeal to the Disciplinary Hearing Administrator in the Central Administrative Office. To appeal to the hearing administrator, you must submit the same disciplinary appeal form that was submitted to the Warden. Be sure to identify the disciplinary by date, time and charging person. Do not send your copy of your disciplinary report, hearing action sheets, or additional pages because copies of these are filed in the hearing administrator's office and are reviewed with your appeal. Any documentation submitted will not be returned.
4. The Disciplinary Hearing Administrator has thirty (30) business days from receipt of your appeal to respond.
5. If you disagree with the Hearing Administrator's response, you have 15 business days to appeal to the Director of the department, who has thirty (30) business days to respond and whose decision will be the final step in the appeal process. Again, you submit the same disciplinary appeal form that was submitted to the Warden and the Disciplinary Hearing Officer.

Restrictive Housing:

Restrictive housing is a status of confinement that separates an inmate from the general population. It can be used for Protective Custody, Investigative Status, Safety of those in General Population and/or Staff, and/or as part of Disciplinary Sanctions. It can be used if the inmate is found guilty of committing a serious rule violation. An inmate may be placed in restrictive housing after a due process hearing and may be released after completion of the imposed sentence or when the inmate no longer poses a threat to him/herself, others or security. Inmates in restrictive housing may be subject to more stringent living conditions and their privileges may be restricted.

The assignment may be made with no hearing in circumstances where there is imminent danger. This assignment can be indefinite, but the inmate will be reviewed every 60 days to determine whether restrictive housing remains appropriate. During intake, you are questioned about possible enemies and other situations that may leave you vulnerable to other inmates such as being a former police officer, homosexual, etc. At that time, a determination is made whether restrictive housing is warranted. Once at a unit, if you feel you need to be reconsidered for restrictive housing, correctional staff should be informed. If you are assigned to temporary restrictive housing, you will remain there until a decision is made.
